

Gradual (so-called Geese Book)
New York, Pierpont Morgan Library, M. 905
Nuremberg, 1507 (vol. I) and 1510 (vol. II)

298 folios (vol. I), 260 folios (vol. II). Contemporary red foliation i-cclv. Modern foliation in pencil 1–299 (starting on fol. 257, there are two separate pencil foliations in a modern hand in the upper right corners; corrected foliation from 261–263).

Writing Support

Parchment. Heavy, stiff calfskin has been treated and scraped so that flesh and hair sides are scarcely discernible. Hair sides face hair sides and flesh sides face flesh sides consistently throughout the manuscript. Several holes and tears in the parchment (e.g. vol. I, 41, 56, 128) Signs of use from page turning are evident in the lower margins; some tabs of the thumb index have been torn off. Curled edges as well as rare occurrences of faded ink and colors indicate exposure to heightened humidity levels (e.g. vol. I, 96r).

Dimensions

65.4cm x 45.4cm with minor variations (vol. I); 66.5cm x 44cm with minor variations (vol. II).

Justification

48.5cm x 29.5cm with minor variations (vol. I); 48.5cm x 29.3cm with minor variations (vol. II). Evidence of prickings and revisions to the rulings.

Number of lines

Nine melody and text lines in single column

Script

Volume I: Textualis, one practiced hand with few corrections (249r, 261r). Musical notation in Hufnagelschrift on five lines, Patrem melodies (275r–286v) in semi-mensural notation. Written by Friedrich Rosendorn, prebendary at St. Nicholas altar in the church of St. Lorenz (died 1507). Lombard initials in black; other initials in red and blue. The extensive rubrication was done by several hands, which is especially evident at the end of the book where the color variations in the red inks are particularly noticeable.

Volume II: Textualis, one practiced hand with very few corrections. Musical notation in Hufnagelschrift on five lines, Patrem melodies (230v–244r) in semi-mensural notation. The scribe is unknown. The only significant difference to volume I is the extensive rubrication by the main scribe.

Collation

Volume II: 36 III<sup>216</sup> + (1-III)<sup>221</sup> + 3 III<sup>239</sup> + II<sup>243</sup> + 2 III<sup>255</sup> + (III-1)<sup>260</sup>.

Volume I: Catchwords are visible for almost every quire written by the same hand in the same ink as the main text. They are the same size as the text. Signatures are largely visible even though some have been partially trimmed. One leaf was removed between fols 197v and 198r.

Volume II: The catchwords are in a different hand from the main text. They are smaller and in a lighter shade of ink. Some of the signatures are still visible.

Decoration

Blue, black and red penwork initials, some divided (e.g. vol. I 49v, 55r, 56v, 93r). Black used only for psalms and versicles; red and blue initials alternate. Many of the divided initials remain unfinished (e.g. vol I 5v, 28v–29r, 54v–55r)

Painted Initials

Volume I: 15v O, 17v L, 47r C, 176r F, 216r D, 257r K, 275r P, 287r S

Volume II: 8r G, 34r P, 49r G, 103r N, 122r G, 146v M, 177r S, 187r O, 230v P, 244r S

Colors for the letters, which include pink, green, gray and blue, do not appear in any recognizable pattern. Several initials sketched in lead remain unfinished. Evidence of guide letters (both upper and lower case) for many initials.

Historiated Initials and Bas-de-pages

Volume I: Traces of lead outlines for many of the initials and their frames (e.g. the right edge of the initial vol. I fol. 38v). Evidence of underdrawings visible where paint has worn away (e.g. lance in the lower margin of vol. I 176r where the artist changed the position of the object subsequent to the drawing).

205r B: The Trinity as the Throne of Grace; Bas-de-page: a wild man with a drawn bow aiming his arrow at a sleeping stag

209r C: Two angels holding a monstrance; Bas-de-page: four angels emerging from buds playing musical instruments (lute, portable organ, harp and cittern)

243v T: Red sandstone church with hall choir; Bas-de-page: three men merrily eating and drinking

249v R: Half-length figure of Death personified as rotting corpse

Volume II:

This volume (in contrast to the first) contains written instructions or traces of written instructions in German listing letters for historiated initials and abridged iconography for the initials and bas de pages. Most of the instructions, placed at the edge of the lower margins, are barely legible and often cut away.

Instructions: Petrus.....D

21v S: Presentation in the Temple; Bas-de-page: Male monkey with three fruits

Bindings

Pigskin over wooden boards. Blind stamps include tendrils, rosettes, and flowers.

Supposedly made in the so-called “Adler workshop” (Kyriss 112), although no eagle motifs are apparent.

Brass edge coverings on the outer upper and lower edges; four corner pieces on each front and back cover under laid with dark blue leather. Raised boss in the center of front and back cover under laid with dark blue leather. Same brass fittings on vol. II, but not under laid with leather on the back cover; one knob on the back cover is missing (on the brass fittings see Merkl).

Fastening straps with clasps are extant; upper strap on vol. II is torn. Traces of verdigris are visible on the clasps and the book cover.
